WHAT'S IN THIS JOURNAL?

These tools are designed to facilitate two essential components to cultivating your personal relationship with God. First, there are tools to help you develop a daily habit of hearing and responding to God through reading Scripture. Second, there is a tool to help you develop a daily and on-going conversational relationship with God through prayer.

INTRODUCTION

The Bible reveals to us that God, the Creator, is fundamentally relational. In the words of the apostle John, "God is love" (1 John 4:8). Though one, God is also a divine community of three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, eternally existing in love. This loving God made us for relationship too, most especially with Him. This invitation is open to us, in spite of our sin, because of the reconciling work of Jesus Christ. Those who come by faith in what Christ has done may dwell in God's holy presence with boldness and confidence, in any and every moment!

But like any friendship, this moment-by-moment relationship should be cultivated. To do this, God's people have practiced spiritual disciplines such as prayer, study of and meditation on Scripture, worship, and biblical community. The psalms celebrate those who delight in and meditate on God's law "day and night" (Psalm 1:2) with this prayer in their hearts: "Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long" (Psalm 25:5).

The tools in this NLCC Life Journal are designed to help you to nurture your relationship with God. We pray that you will experience something of what A.W. Tozer described in his book, The Pursuit of the Holy:

"It is important that we get still to wait on God. And it is best that we get alone, preferably with our Bible outspread before us. Then if we will we may draw near to God and begin to hear Him speak to us in our hearts. I think for the average person the progression will be something like this: First, a sound as of a Presence walking in the garden. Then, a voice, more intelligible, but still far from clear. Then the happy moment when the Spirit begins to illuminate the Scriptures, and that which has been only a sound, or at best a voice, now becomes an intelligible word, warm and intimate and clear as the word of a dear friend. Then will come life and light, and best of all, ability to see and rest in and embrace Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and All."

TIME IN THE WORD

“Oh how I love your law!” declares the psalmist. “I meditate on it all day long” (Psalm 119:97). God’s Word is “more precious than gold,” “sweeter than honey” (Psalm 19:10), and “a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path” (Psalm 119:105). When we make a daily habit of “feeding” on Scripture, it becomes a tool of the Holy Spirit in transforming our desires, our thoughts, our actions, and our relationships (see Romans 12:1-2, 2 Timothy 3:16-17). The enclosed Two-Year Daily Bible Reading Plan, Life Journal, and suggested online resources from The Bible Project are designed to help you develop a daily habit of hearing from and responding to God, both alone or in shared experience with others. Here’s how it works.

TWO-YEAR BIBLE READING PLAN

A Bible Reading Plan helps you to read the whole Bible in a systematic way. Practiced repeatedly over a lifetime, this habit helps you to deepen your understanding of the overall narrative of Scripture, its major themes and recurring images, and “the whole counsel of God” (Acts 20:27).

This daily reading plan leads you through the Old Testament once over two years, usually one chapter per day. It leads you through the New Testament twice over two years; the first time is one chapter per day, the second time slows you down to about half a chapter per day. Finally, you are encouraged to not just read, but to pray one of the psalms every day. In other words, there are between 2½ and 4 chapters to read each day, as you are able. Rather than feeling the obligation to “catch up” after missing a day, give yourself permission to just read the day’s assigned reading as it is scheduled.

To engage in your daily reading, refer to the dated reading plan at the back of this resource, and then follow the Life Journaling process outlined below.

KEEPING A LIFE JOURNAL

WHEN SHOULD I DO IT?

Whenever you will be most alert and least distracted. Jesus deserves your best attention!

HOW DO I DO IT?

STEP 1: Find the Bible readings corresponding to today's date from the TWO YEAR BIBLE READING PLAN (or any Bible reading plan of your choosing). As you prepare to read, invite the Holy Spirit to teach you and reveal Jesus to you. Mark off each daily reading as you complete it.

STEP 2: Read through the assigned Scriptures. Allow the following questions to help you pay attention to what God wants to say to you:

What's the concern? What problem, question, longing, need, hope, pitfall, or opportunity is God addressing here through the biblical author?

What's the answer? What is God revealing about Himself? What answer, explanation, warning, promise, insight, perspective or command is God offering to those receiving the message?

What's the connection? Where do I experience this issue in MY life, and how does God's answer help ME see more clearly, understand more fully, speak and act more faithfully to MY reality?

What's my response? What is God saying to ME? How is God inviting me to think, speak, or act in obedience to what He is telling me?

As you consider what you are reading with an open and humble heart, what do you sense the Holy Spirit drawing your attention to?

STEP 3: Once you've identified a special insight or lesson, turn to a fresh page in your journal to record what you have learned. Enter the date, title the page and record the Scripture verse that spoke to you. Write a few words about what the verse means and what you think God is communicating to you personally.

Here is a suggested format for writing in your Life Journal.

- L Look at the SCRIPTURE the Lord has impressed on you. Write it out.
- I Investigate a key theme, lesson or promise that you have OBSERVED.
- F Follow the Lord as he teaches you to APPLY what you have learned.
- E Engage with God in PRAYER in response to your learning (pp x-xii).

Date

Title

4/23

Keep in God's Love

---

Look: Keep yourselves in God's love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life. Jude 21

---

Investigate: Jude's letter is a warning against false teachers and leaders in the church who are after money and who live immoral lifestyles. Jude tells us that as believers we are to keep ourselves in the Spirit (Jude 20) and in God's love (Jude 21).

Follow: We still hear about many believers falling into greed and immorality. My response needs to be to press in closer to God's heart of love. His love is pure and holy, and the more I understand that, the more I will reflect that love. I will seek to walk daily, not by focusing on more rules and regulations, but by the Spirit's guidance to keep me from sin.

---

Engage: Dear Lord, thank you for your amazing love. Please help me hear and obey your Spirit's leading today. Help me understand and live in your love.

---

STEP 4: Catalog your entry in the Table of Contents by date, Scripture, topic/title, and page, like this:

Table of Contents Sample

Date	Scripture	Title	Page
4/23	Jude 21	Keep in God's Love	2
4/24	Psalm 2	Come weary, leave refreshed	3

Also, note the date of your entry in the margin of your Bible beside the Scripture you considered, for future reference (e.g. LJ 4/23/16).

THE BIBLE PROJECT: THEBIBLEPROJECT.COM

The Bible Project is an excellent video resource that explains the theme, structure and purpose of each book of the Bible, along with a variety of key themes and metaphors in Scripture, through easy-to-understand visuals and helpful narration.

At various points in the reading plan – especially at the beginning of each book and key sections of Scripture – a corresponding online video, available at the above website, is suggested as a reference for understanding what you are reading.

We highly recommend this as a resource for your study of Scripture!

LIFE JOURNALING WITH OTHERS

Life Journaling is also a great way to share Scripture insights together. Find a few friends (3-4) with whom you can meet regularly (e.g. weekly) to share in the Life Journaling experience.

Here is a suggested format:

1. Gather in a comfortable environment (a living room or coffee shop).
2. Take a few moments to connect on a personal level.
3. Together, but individually, spend the next 30 minutes in quiet, practicing your normal, personal Life Journaling habit.
4. Come together as a group. Take turns sharing around the “circle” what you have written in your Life Journal, as each feels comfortable. Just read what you wrote, whether it is a few lines or a few paragraphs. No one person should monopolize the time with his/her insights.
5. Close your time together by praying about what you have heard from God, and lifting up one another’s needs to Him.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from the evil one.

For yours is the kingdom,

the power and the glory forever and ever.

Amen. (Mt. 6:9–13)

TIME IN PRAYER

The entire biblical story, from Genesis to Jesus to the final restoration of all creation in Revelation 21, is a story about God's relationship with us. God desires to share his life with you, and for you to open your life to him. Prayer - as regular, self-disclosing conversation - strengthens relationship. Like any relational tool, it can be learned and practiced. The well-known sequence of the Lord's Prayer provides a model and guide for our daily conversations with God, revealing a concise summary of the things God most desires to talk with us about!

Worship:

"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name."

- Express adoration, "God, you are..." and thanksgiving, "Thank you for..." This increases intimacy, restores a right perspective, and strengthens faith.

Petition:

*"Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.*

Give us this day our daily bread,"

- Invite him to be King in each area of your life: "Your will be done in ..."
- Then bring specific practical needs before him, for yourself and others. You may use the following Personal Requests Journal to keep record of things you're continually lifting to God in prayer. Remember, God encourages our persistence in prayer (see Luke 18:1-8).

Confession:

*“and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.”*

- Apologize for any wrong that you have done against God or others: “God, I’m sorry for...”
- Express forgiveness toward those who have wronged you. If this is difficult, consider asking another person to pray with you, or for you.

Engagement:

*“And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.”*

- God desires to engage with you relationally. Ask for him to “lead” you (either generally or in a specific situations or challenge), and pause for his response. You may find that the day’s Scripture reading now has special significance, that you perceive some situation in a new way, or that you experience a sense of peace or joy.
- Ask also for any deliverance, protection, or healing that you need. If any of this is difficult, consider asking another person to pray with or for you.

Worship:

*“For yours is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever and ever.”*

- End as you began, with expressions of worship. You may find it helpful to pray through the Psalm that is in your reading plan.

PERSONAL REQUESTS JOURNAL

Include needs (physical, emotional, spiritual) in your life, your family, your Life Group, or other contexts; the salvation of people you know who don't know Jesus; God's leading in specific questions or decisions. Make note here, and record answers as you receive them.
